TOMORROW

Education drives our civic and economic well-being. Each facet of society comes together to form the picture of continued learning and growth.

THE 21st CENTURY STUDENT

The 21st Century Student IS A LIFELONG LEARNER – and each has unique goals and needs. In the 21st Century, a degree or certificate has clear meaning. Transparency and readily understood paths give society clarity on what it means to have credentials and the abilities, skills and knowledge required to attain them. A high-performing, productive higher education system supports the success of 21st Century Students in reaching their goals.
